What to expect

1 We review your report

Our specialists in the Civil Rights Division carefully read every report to identify civil rights violations, spot trends, and determine if we have authority to help with your report.

2 Our specialists determine the next step

We may decide to:
Open an investigation or take some other action within the legal authority of the Justice Department.
Collect more information before we can look into your report.
Recommend another government agency that can properly look into your report. If so, we'll let you know.

In some cases, we may determine that we don't have legal authority to handle your report and will recommend that you seek help from a private lawyer or local legal aid organization.

3 When possible, we will follow up with you

We do our best to let you know about the outcome of our review. However, we may not always be able to provide you with updates because:
We're actively working on an investigation or case related to your report.
We're receiving and actively reviewing many requests at the same time.

If we are able to respond, we will contact you using the contact information you provided in this report. Depending on the type of report, response times can vary. If you need to reach us about your report, please refer to your report number when contacting us. This is how we keep track of your submission.

What you can do next

① Contact local legal aid organizations or a lawyer if you haven't already

Legal aid offices or members of lawyer associations in your state may be able to help you with your issue.
Legal Services Corporation (or Legal Aid Offices), to help you find a legal aid lawyer in your area visit www.lsc.gov/find-legal-ai

② Get help immediately if you are in danger

If you reported an incident where you or someone else has experienced or is still experiencing physical harm or violence, or are in immediate danger, please call 911 and contact the police.

Personal description

In your own words, describe what happened

I was discriminated against based on my age, sex, and racial characteristics. For 3 months going on 4 months, I qualified for services with their Homebound Meal Delivery services (C2) and was approved for them without issue.
In the past month, I was experiencing service interruption and I wanted to see why this was. She passed this off and gave me excuses, that some man named "Jim" was causing problems for me, but it is unlikely because I have not even heard of this man before.
On May 28th at 9:30, I requested contact with Susan Satur who basically got pertinent information from me to complete the Medicaid/Medicare transfer.
However, while praising the Office of Aging for at least providing me with disability services for the past 3 months, I was shocked to know that they "should not have provided anything after my stroke and federal disability" which is clearly news to me.
The very next day on May 29th at 10:01 a.m, they wrote me an email and contacted me to say that they were "sorry", and that (after 12 HOURS due to a GOSSIP session between two women), the "regret to in were "sorry", and that (after 12 HOURS due to a GOSSIP session between two women), the "regret to inform me that the services they provided and approved for the last 4 months would terminate, effective immediately."

They cited the fact that "I was not 60 yet, and if only I had been 59.5 years old, they could have done something gosh, but so sorry!"

I managed to get out these words on the phone conversation: "For 4 months you did not see a problem. But after your gossip session, you close this out in 12 hours or less? You cannot choose to be disabled after having a stroke at 45, and you do not get to chose whether it happens at age 45, at age 59.5, or after age 60. You are taking this federal money and discriminating against me based on age, race, and anything that sticks to the wall, and if you do not rectify this immediately, it will not end well."

For two weeks, I have been without any services and left with my disability, while they provide them to OTHER people right next door, but not me.

Walter Manglona and Evelyn/Vivian has neither returned my calls or emails from May 30th on after.

It is now June 15th, and I have heard nothing from them.

I want serious answers for this, because their excuse does not hold water, and I think that Federal Agencies and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) ought to know that they are OK with denying or otherwise manipulating these services to deny me of them, while all the while receiving funding for them.
